Vending innovation award: "Vending Star 2009"

We are familiar with the terms of the competition, and in accordance with them we hereby enter a vending innovation for the award as described below.
We confirm that we are eligible to enter, that we developed the innovation ourselves, and that no third parties have property rights (trademark rights, patent rights, etc.).

Our entry belongs to the following category (please tick as appropriate):

- Technical equipment (vending machine, dispenser, payment system or similar)
- Device for the operation of vending machines
- Concept for a new kind of vending business idea (already implemented)
- Product (suitable for dispensing / selling from vending machines and / or preparing in vending machines)

Brief description:

Should we win an award, we are willing and able to exhibit our entry / concept at the "Innovation Award" area of Eu'Vend (Cologne, 10th to 12th September 2009). We will transport the item to and from Cologne at our own cost and risk.

Should we win the competition, we will attend personally the awards ceremony in Cologne during the vending evening on 11th September 2009, 7 p.m.

We consent to Koelnmesse and the BDV reporting on our entry and notifying the press.

We also acknowledge that Koelnmesse and the BDV will treat details from our application confidentially, insofar as the information we supply is not required by the judging panel or the press.
